

answer As the number of polynomials increase (k), the models start to overfit the training data part_c.png