answer

part$_s$mall

The graph clearly shows that: as the number of examples(inputs) decreases, and the number of features increases, the polynomials cause the model to overfit the data