answer Using the true labels as the indicators output y gives a clearer indication of where the decision boundary should be in the data.

posonly$_b$